

Advertising Opportunities

Special advertising packages are available to select from. As the attendance to this year's event is expected to exceed last year's, you will surely see the benefits of placing your business, dedications, announcements or personal notes in our published programs and flyers, which are distributed throughout the community businesses and at the event. In addition, the Hoike Hawaii website receives 800 to 1,000 hits per week and triples during the surrounding timeframe of our events. This is a prime avenue for your advertisement to reach hundreds of thousands that visit our website. By taking advantage of any one of these packages, you will also be helping to fund our efforts in bringing wonderful cultural events, such as this each year to those who live far from home, interested in the culture and those with so much Aloha in their hearts! Mahalo nui loa for your kokua!
